

tier3 solutions is an independent and privately owned GLP-certified contract research organization (CRO). Our mission is to make chemicals safe according to international environmental safety guidelines by supporting our clients with high-quality scientific and regulatory expertise. For further information, please visit our homepage at www.tier3.de

To support our regulatory affairs team, we are currently seeking an

Experienced Regulatory Ecotoxicologist (m, f)

Full-time / permanent contract

Role and Responsibilities

- Ecotoxicological risk assessments for registration of plant protection products (Regulation (EC) 1107/2009)
- Preparation of dossier sections E fate and Ecotox for EU registration of new active substances or renewal (AIR)
- Preparation of dRR B8, B9 and B10 for product registration in Europe (zonal approach)
- Data gap analysis
- Evaluation of study reports including preparation of study summaries
- Study monitoring
- Preparation of expert statements and position papers
- Communication and close co-operation with our customers and relevant authorities

Profile and Qualifications

- University degree in a relevant science (e.g. biology, chemistry, environmental sciences or a related field)
- Relevant working experience of at least 3 years
- Experience in weight of evidence assessment of potential endocrine disruptors would be an asset
- Experience with public literature review (reliability assessment) would be a plus
- Strongly motivated with excellent communication skills; ability to work in a team
- Ability to solve problems and to structure and simplify complex tasks
- High degree of flexibility
- Excellent English language skills (spoken and written); German language skills would be an asset, but not mandatory

Benefits

- You will be working in a dynamic and experienced international team of scientists in an EU-wide operating consultant company, with a high degree of responsibility and independence
- You will be able to benefit from our team based approach, which will allow you to be part of projects beyond the usual of regulatory affairs (higher tier and field work)
- Intensive on-the-job training will be provided
- We have a pension plan; we sponsor environment-friendly (public) transport

Location

- Leverkusen (Germany)
- Please send your application until 15th March 2019 to the following address: "info@tier3.de" referring to Ref.-No.: 2019-02-01